

Fall 2009 Educational Sessions

IRB Health Sciences & Behavioral Sciences (IRB-HSBS)

Introduction to the IRB

Thursday, October 1

12:00-1:15

221 Dennison

OR

Tuesday, October 27

12:00-1:15

3230 Undergraduate Science Bldg. (USB)

The objectives of this session are (1) to review the underlying ethical principles that guide the work of the IRB, (2) to discuss the types of research regulated by the IRB, and (3) to outline the process of IRB review at UM. Recommended for new researchers and for those new to UM

eResearch Basics

Wednesday, October 7

12:00-1:15

Shapiro Computer Lab

OR

Tuesday, November 3

12:00-1:15

Shapiro Computer Lab

The objectives of this session are (1) to introduce eResearch, the electronic system for IRB submissions, (2) to review how to navigate in the eResearch system, and (3) to discuss how to prepare and submit applications in the eResearch system. Recommended for new researchers and for those new to UM; also helpful for seasoned researchers as a refresher

Fundamentals of Informed Consent

Thursday, November 12

12:00-1:15

221 Dennison

The objectives of this session are (1) to provide the historical context of informed consent, (2) to review the regulations regarding informed consent, (3) to discuss waivers, and (4) to discuss ways to create an understandable informed consent document. Recommended for all levels of experience

How to Create an IRB Amendment

Tuesday, October 13

12:00-1:15

3230 Undergraduate Science Bldg. (USB)

The objectives of this session are (1) to learn how to enter new information in an approved eResearch application in a way that is clear and understandable to the IRB, (2) to discuss document naming conventions and management practices that are informative to reviewers and study teams, and (3) to review how to create an amendment cover sheet that is an effective road map for the IRB. Recommended for all levels of experience

All sessions are open to faculty, staff, and students and will begin as close to the start time (12:00) as possible. With the exception of the eResearch workshops, you are welcome to bring your lunch.

Please call the IRB-HSBS office to let us know you're coming at 936-0933 or email us at irbhsbs@umich.edu.

A campus map is attached. See you soon!